1. The invoice issued confirms the trade fair stand booking process and must be paid at once. Once the amount due is paid, the booking becomes valid. If, after previous warning, the amount due is not paid, the organiser reserves the right to make other arrangements for the reserved stand. By signing below, the signatory accepts the terms and conditions of the trade fair. Oral agreements are not valid; all agreements must be made in writing.
2. Upon signing, the rental agreement becomes legally binding. For any booking cancelled up to 6 (six) weeks before the event, a compensation amounting to 50% of the respective fee will be charged; bookings cancelled after the above date will be charged at the full rate.
3. The organiser will allocate as well as position the booths and arrange the stands once the booking process is concluded and all reservations have been received; the organiser's decision is final. Furthermore, the organiser reserves the right to relocate stands and advertising space for the benefit of the overall appearance of the trade fair. This does not entitle the exhibitor to a reduction of the rental fee. Moreover, the organiser reserves the right to exclude individual products from the trade fair.
4. It is up to the organiser to decide whether an exhibitor will be admitted to the trade fair or not. Any previously granted admission may be revoked in the event of infringements or changes to the requirements. The organiser reserves the right to reject applications for organisational reasons. The organiser does not guarantee the exclusion of competition. All decisions are final and binding in all respects and there is no right of appeal.
5. The exhibitor agrees to keep their stand open and staffed during the entire duration of the trade fair. Opening hours: 09:00 to 18:00; closing hour: 19:00. Please note that this timetable is subject to change. The exhibitor agrees to keep their stand clean and tidy at all times. There is no cleaning service for individual stands. At the end of the event, the stands must be swept clean and all items brought along (cardboard boxes, packaging etc.) must be disposed of by the exhibitor. Failure to comply with this rule will result in cleaning and disposal charges at the exhibitor's expense.
6. All exhibitors and their staff will receive a non-transferable exhibitor badge for the trade fair. Failure to comply with the trade fair rules will result in the confiscation of the badges. Badges can only be issued by the organiser (trade fair management).
7. All deliveries of goods and stand material must be completed 1 (one) hour before the start of the fair. It is not permitted to take visitors or other persons into the hall before the start of the fair. Any such person may be asked to leave by the security service. Those helping to assemble and set up a stand are excluded from this rule. Any such person must pick up a separate badge and may enter the venue grounds for unloading and loading purposes as well as for the duration of the stand assembly/set-up process.

8. Stands may be assembled/set-up between 08:00 and 20:00 from Monday 18 to Wednesday 20 May 2020. The stands should not exceed a height of 2.5 m. Any stand exceeding this height is subject to prior authorisation. Stand safety and due diligence must be ensured at all times, especially with regard to health regulations and order. The exhibitor is liable for any damage caused.
9. Individual products must not protrude into the aisles.
10. The rented surface or parts thereof may not be passed on to or exchanged with third parties without the organiser's explicit consent. Failure to comply with this rule may lead to exclusion from the trade fair without a refund.
11. If a stand is rented by several exhibitors, each exhibitor is jointly and severally liable. If it is not possible to organise or operate the fair in an orderly and controlled manner, it is at the organiser's discretion to cancel the trade fair or shorten its duration. Damages may only be claimed if there is proof of gross negligence on the part of the organiser (trade fair management). Events of force majeure or vandalism, which could lead to the premature termination of the trade fair, do not constitute the right to claim for damages against the organiser. All decisions are final and binding in all respects and there is no right of appeal.
12. The trade fair organiser is responsible for all security checks at the gates and the overall security service. Stand security is the exhibitor's responsibility. This also applies to set-up and disassembly times. The trade fair organiser accepts no liability whatsoever for any damage or loss.
13. As a general rule, it is not permitted to hand out brochures and advertising material outside the rented areas. The use of radio and other audio player devices as well as loudspeaker announcements are also prohibited. Photographs taken by third parties for commercial purposes or drawings are subject to prior authorisation by the organiser.
14. Additional services such as higher electrical power, water etc. are available upon request and will be charged and invoiced separately.
15. The sale of food and beverages as well as refreshments, sweets and luxury items of all kinds is subject to prior authorisation by the organiser. Please contact the organiser if this applies to you.
16. Kufstein is the sole place of jurisdiction for all legal matters. This also applies to any claims lodged in judicial proceedings to collect payment against exhibitors who are registered merchants or persons under public law and exhibitors who have no general place of jurisdiction in Austria.
